

Underground: A Collection of Short Fiction

What does underground mean to you? This anthology from the Northwest Independent Writers Association presents fourteen underground stories, each with a different interpretation of the titular theme. In these pages, you will visit a murderers hideout, walk the road to the afterlife, plunder a dragons lair, uncover a mysterious archaeological artifact, glimpse human existence after an environmental apocalypse, and delve deep into dark secretes, crime syndicates, forbidden worlds, sacrifice, and the human psyche. Featuring stories by: Mike Chinakos Amber Michelle Cook Pamela Cowan Jake Elliot Jonathan Ems T.L. Kleinberg Jason LaPier Maggie Lynch Roslyn McFarland Cody Newton Dey Rivers Steven L. Shrewsbury Dale Ivan Smith Laurel Standley Jennifer Willis The Northwest Independent Writers Association (NIWA) supports indie and hybrid authors and promotes professional standards in independent writing, publishing, and marketing.
