

Englands Lane (LITTERATURE ETR) (French Edition)

Englands Lane, dans le Nord de Londres, est une rue pleine de vie, où se côtoient de nombreuses boutiques. L'occasion de s'immerger dans le quotidien des commerçants de la petite artère en 1959. On y rencontre entre autres Milly, mariée à Jim Stammer qui tient la quincaillerie. Ils ont un fils adoptif, Paul, d'une dizaine d'années. Il y a aussi Stan, le marchand de tabac et de friandises dont la femme reste cloîtrée à la maison, père d'une gamine de l'âge de Paul. Ou encore Jonathan Barton, le boucher de Englands Lane qui reçoit un jour la visite d'un inconnu le menaçant de révéler sa véritable identité. Infidélités, mensonges, meurtres et trahisons se cachent derrière les façades propres de chacun des commerçants, bien moins lisses qu'on pourrait le croire. Une comédie de mœurs comme seul Joseph Connolly en a le secret, savoureuse et piquante à souhait. Création Studio Flammarion. En couverture : Digital Vision / Masterfile
