

Graffiti My Soul

This is Surrey where nothing bad ever happens. Except somehow, 15 year-old Verapen, half Tamil, half-Jew and the fastest runner in the school has just helped bury Moon Suzuki, the girl he loved. His Dad has run off with an optician and his Mums going off the rails; then, theres his trainer, whos has been accused of kiddie-fiddling. Since, when did growing up in the suburbs get this complicated? As the knots of Moon and Verapens tragic story unfold, Niven Govinden brings to life a misfit hero of the school gates, bristling with tenderness, venom and vigour. Graffiti My Soul is a hip, rich, big-hearted book full of unexpected twists and inspiring humanity.
