

Alchemic Love

Josef, young flautist, discovers his spiritual life when he meets with Vera, who ignores her role of inspiring muse towards his journey into the inner centre of himself. Thanks to Vera, he experiences the Supreme Love, the universal strength that resides in every creature, but that is freed only with the magic union between man and woman. The fogs slightly open and the initiate can now see his way, he can now move inside the suggesting metaphor of the four alchemic phases: Nigredo, Albedo, Citrinitas and Rubedo. Victims of a series of situations, later revealed to be synchronicity, Josef after a long and difficult spiritual journey, in which he has a perception of an ancient reverberation of the shape of the winged Caduceus, discovers the meaning of the ancient and mysterious alchemic texts, whose origins come from the emerald table of Ermete Trismegisto. This is how the Re-Bis, or Great Opera, will be realised: the transformation from plain metal to gold. What tells is an ancient history of rosemary and Aqua Permanens.
