

Oration and Poem, Delivered at the Commencement of the College of California, Wednesday, June 7th, 1865: Together with the Annual Report of the Vice President of the College (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from Oration and Poem, Delivered at the Commencement of the College of California, Wednesday, June 7th, 1865: Together With the Annual Report of the Vice President of the College It was a special point which the tempter pressed upon man. It was a Special passion in man which was touched by the temptation. Only eat, (a felicity in itself) and the keys of knowledge and of heaven, are your own. Self-aggrandizement by self-indulgence.
