

Lime Street Blues

Three Liverpool families, the Flowers, the Baileys and the McDowds are inextricably linked by music. The young people revel in the heady excitement of Sixties Liverpool. Against all odds in this male dominated world, three of the girls form a successful group, only splitting to go their separate ways, Rita to find ever greater success as a singer, Marcia to become a mother and Jeannie Flowers cruelly to deceive the husband she loves in order to have the family she longs for. It is Sean McDowd who becomes the greatest star of them all, adored by women everywhere, yet never able to get his childhood love, Jeannie, out of his mind. But Jeannie is married to his best friend...
