

The 2009 Import and Export Market for Porcelain or China Tableware and Kitchenware in Thailand

On the demand side, exporters and strategic planners focusing on porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware in Thailand face a number of questions. Which countries are supplying porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware to Thailand? How important is Thailand compared to others in terms of the entire global and regional market? How much do the imports of porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware vary from one country of origin to another in Thailand? On the supply side, Thailand also exports porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware. Which countries receive the most exports from Thailand? How are these exports concentrated across buyers? What is the value of these exports and which countries are the largest buyers? This report was created for strategic planners, international marketing executives and import/export managers who are concerned with the market for porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware in Thailand. With the globalization of this market, managers can no longer be contented with a local view. Nor can managers be contented with out-of-date statistics which appear several years after the fact. I have developed a methodology, based on macroeconomic and trade models, to estimate the market for porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware for those countries serving Thailand via exports, or supplying from Thailand via imports. It does so for the current year based on a variety of key historical indicators and econometric models. In what follows, Chapter 2 begins by summarizing where Thailand fits into the world market for imported and exported porcelain or china tableware and kitchenware. The total level of imports and exports on a worldwide basis, and those for Thailand in particular, is estimated using a model which aggregates across over 150 key country markets and projects these to the current year. From there, each country represents a percent of the world market. This market is served from a
